

Gary Wallace Auctioneers handles 3000 to 5000 individual lots a month for upcoming auctions. Items arrive from many sources and locations. We do not guarantee any items we are selling including condition, age, signatures, history or material made of. We provide ample preview time for buyers to make their own assumptions and values. Our written and verbal descriptions may be incorrect and we caution buyers that they have no recourse and will not get refunded. We offer no implied or express warranties of any kind (BUYER BEWARE). We encourage buyers to preview items in advance and if you elect to bid absentee bid without viewing the bidder must complete the form on our web site and send it back via fax 12 hours prior to sale start time. All shipping and packing is to be arranged by the buyer. The buyer is responsible to pay for all Purchases charged to their accounts before any goods will be released.

We do not give condition reports...

We very rarely use phone bidding...

Most auctions are not catalogued and sold in random order...

We charge a buyer's premium-terms announced at sale time-

No sales tax in New Hampshire

Checks accepted with approval by our bookkeepers- need photo on Driver's license. Request for photos on particular lots will be by email And must be submitted no later than 3 days before sale date.

Phone inquiry is not possible during auction preview time. Please call far in advance if you have any questions.

We take particular pride in keeping things simple. We are a rural auction company that specializes in estate liquidations.

We offer our buyers an opportunity to purchase items at a true New England country auction in New Hampshire.

The following terms may be amended . The terms announced prior to the sale take priority to any written general terms. We reserve the right to delete or add certain terms to best suit the auction we are conducting. On location auctions require bidders to preview items prior to bid acceptance. We do not ship, but we can take smaller items to a local shipping company as a courtesy, the buyer pays all shipping costs.

serving all of New England
